WHEREAS, on or about July 30, 2019, the United States filed a Complaint-In-Intervention (the “Government Complaint”), asserting claims against defendant Nagan alleging that, during the period September 2012 through February 2018, Nagan underpaid employees who worked on the Delano Hall Project and the Job Corps Center Project by failing to pay them the prevailing wage, and also submitted false certified payroll records that inaccurately classified the work performed by these employees as being less skilled than the work actually performed (the “Covered Conduct”);

WHEREAS, pursuant to Paragraph 3 of the Settlement Agreement, Defendant agreed to pay the United States) the sum of $435,000 plus interest that shall be compounded annually at a rate of 2.25% accruing from July 15, 2019, to the date of payment (the “Settlement Amount”), to resolve the claims of the United States for the Covered Conduct;

WHEREAS, the Parties mutually desire to reach a full and final compromise of the Relator Share Claim pursuant to the terms set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in reliance on the representations contained herein and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations in this Relator Stipulation, and for good and valuable consideration, receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the Parties agree as follows:

1. In the event that Defendant fails to make the payment required by the Settlement Agreement, the United States shall have no obligation to make any payment to Relator.

2. arising from or relating to the Settlement Agreement or any claim in the Relator Action or the Government Complaint.

4. This Relator Stipulation does not resolve or in any manner affect any claims the United States has or may have against Relator arising under Title 26, U.S. Code (Internal Revenue Code), or any claims that the Parties may have arising under this Relator Stipulation.

5. The United States and Relator agree that if the Settlement Agreement is held by a court not to be "fair, adequate, and reasonable," as required under 31 U.S.C. § 3730(c)(2)(B), this Relator Stipulation is null and void.
